MORE FRAUDS.

This is an era when man has not much confidence in his fellow man. Now we are treated to the modus operandi by which the Government has been and is being defrauded to the extent of a million dollars annually. Pension Commissioner Atkinson has discovered and unearthed a gigantic ring, composed of three prominent firms of claims agents in Philadelphia, which has succeeded by fraudulent documentary evidence in getting through during the past few years many thousand pension cases, involving over $1,000,000 annually. The evidence as to the guilt of the firms—which are Devitt & Co., Schilliver, Francis & Register, and Matthew Paulson & Co—is of the most positive kind. The ring includes one deputy clerk at Philadelphia who affixed a seal to all papers sent to him by the above firms. A large number of persons who appeared on the rolls as pensioners have made affidavits that they have no disabilities, but were paid so much to sign blank papers presented to them by the above firms. The evidence was fraudulent but appeared genuine and pensions were allowed, which have been regularly drawn by the ring under powers of attorney. And so it goes. First one, then the other. But we will reach the end some time, and then let us hope a new and purer era will dawn. Let the Indian ring be the next tackled.

THE LAW-MAKERS AT WORK.

The United States Congress and the Legislature of California convened yesterday. Fortunately the session of the latter is limited to 100 days, though this is the long session of the former, and the period of adjournment is one of the indefinite things of the future. Important business will be brought before both bodies, but what portion of it will receive the earnest attention of members is a matter of great uncertainty. It is too often the case that questions of paramount public interest are deferred until near the close of the session, and then acted upon in a hasty and imperfect manner. If members wish to retain the public approval, they will take up the more important matters promptly, discuss them candidly and fully, and act accordingly. For once, we hope, that minor topics and mere bombastic speeches will take their appropriate subordinate positions in the discussions of these legislative bodies. The business public will breathe freer after their adjournment.

THE OFFICERS.

The House of Representatives was fully organized yesterday by the election of Kerr, of Indiana, as Speaker; Geo. M. Adams, of Kentucky, as Clerk; J. G. Thompson, of Ohio, as Sergeant-at-Arms, and L. H. Fitzhugh for Doorkeeper. This latter gentleman was formerly Sergeant-at-Arms of the Confederate Congress. It is stated that the Central Pacific lobby worked hard to aid Kerr to secure the caucus nomination for Speaker.

BANK OF CALIFORNIA ASSESSMENT
In accordance with the programme indicated in the JOURNAL a few days since, the Directors of the Bank of California met Saturday afternoon and levied their first assessment of 10 per cent., under the new Code, to repair the impaired capital of the Bank and pay its just debts. The total amount of the assessment is $600,000, and is payable from this date. If not paid by the 10th of January, it will be advertised as delinquent, and if the delinquents do not settle by the 26th of January, the stock, or so much of it as may be necessary, will be sold to cover the assessment and costs of sale. It is expected that other assessments will follow, at suitable intervals, until the capital is made good.

THE Elko Post hope that a fitter man than Stevenson will have charge of Nevada's affairs at the Centennial.

THE "BOSS."

The startling news is telegraphed that "Boss" Tweed has escaped from custody. It comes under date of the 4th, as follows, and while it may be a canard, it looks plausible:

A dispatch was received at police headquarters this evening stating that he had just escaped from the custody of Warden Dunham, of the jail. Word was immediately telegraphed to every police station in the city, Brooklyn and neighboring cities, notifying the police to be on the lookout. Warden Dunham subsequently called on Inspector Dilks, at the Police Central Office, and stated that he had accompanied the prisoner to the residence of Mrs. Tweed, on Madison Avenue and Fifty-ninth street, and while there Tweed requested permission to see his wife privately. Dunham unhesitatingly granted the request, and Tweed went up stairs to his wife's room, leaving one of his sons to entertain Dunham. The latter, after waiting about ten minutes became uneasy and sent young Tweed up stairs to tell his father to come down immediately as he desired to return to the jail. In a short time the young man returned and informed Dunham that his father had gone. Dunham at once searched the house, but no trace of "the Boss" could be found. Leaving a deputy in charge of the house, Dunham hurried to the residence of Sheriff Conner and informed him of the escape. The police authorities were promptly notified, and the central office detectives at once went out, scouring the city in all directions.

Tweed is undoubtedly one of the most consummate scoundrels the world ever produced. He ought to have been hung years ago. And if he is captured we hope will be strung up without further delay.

COMING IN.—The prospects of a long, hard and dull season in the north has caused quite an influx of people from Cornucopia and other mining camps, who seek a more congenial climate in which to pass the winter. All these people "allow" to return again in the Spring and engage in their various pursuits and callings, for they say that no section of the State is prospectively so desirable to make money in as the new and developed mining camp in the northern part of Elko county. Of Cornucopia and Tuscarora there seems to be but one opinion, which is that the prospects of the mines justify the vast outlay that has been made on improvements, such as the building of large and extensive stores, warehouses, hotels and private residences. We have yet to see a man, whose judgment was worth a cent, who expressed a doubt as to the final triumph and success of those who, braving the perils incident to pioneering, invest their money and stick and hang until the work of development gives the fullest assurance of the permanency and value of the mines. —Elko Post.

PHOTOGRAPH.—The likeness of a woman who has been dead over twenty years was lately discovered on a pane of glass in a chamber window in a house at Charlotte, Va. The likeness is distinct and accurate, and resembles a photograph negative. It is said that the woman was stunned by a flash of lightning many years ago, while standing at that window, and the theory is that the outlines of her features were photographed on the window-pane at that time.

THE CONTESTANTS.—A contemporary thus classifies the contestants for the subsidy which is demanded for the Texas and Pacific Railroad:

It will undoubtedly be a war of giants—Tom Scott and Senator Jones upon one side, Garrett, Jay Gould, Vanderbilt and the Central Pacific people on the other; the Pennsylvania Central and Santa Monica against hundreds of millions of northern railroad wealth.

A WRONG.—Some of our contemporaries desire to implicate the President of the United States in the whisky frauds, because General Babcock seems to be compromised. The very fact that the offenders are being actively punished at the instance of the President precludes such a supposition.

THE San Francisco Chronicle very aptly remarks:

The Nevada Centennial Commissioners are still quarreling among themselves. It is to be hoped that the gentlemen who compose the present Commission will not be appointed to represent Nevada at our National Exhibition.

We called for the resignation of both Stevenson and Whitehill. We showed that it was to their rivalries and clashing plans that all the wrangling within the Board was chargeable. We urged, further, that their position as employees of the Board—Quartz-mill man and Mineralogist—made it improper that Stevenson should be President and Whitehill Secretary. Whitehill has resigned, as we think he was right in doing. We think it would be equally right for Mr. Stevenson to withdraw from the Commission.—Carson Appeal.

THE "BOSS."

MRS. MOULTON SPEAKS AGAIN.

Another Letter From Her in Reply to Beecher.

Mrs. Moulton has addressed a letter to the members of Plymouth Church, in reply to one addressed to her and adopted by them on Friday evening last. She says:

"I do not believe there was any one more faithful to Plymouth Church up to the time I became acquainted with the great wickedness which Mr. Beecher committed in his relations with Mrs. Tilton. After that it did not seem possible for me to go to hear him preach, or to take the sacrament from his hands, and I stopped doing so. I could not with any satisfaction hear him preach of purity and Christian joy, while I

KNEW OF HIS SECRET AGONY
And his acknowledged but hidden sin. That I did not go elsewhere for worship and the sacrament was almost wholly owing to him. He begged me again and again to come back, when I said I could not till he had acknowledged his sin, and so abominated for it so far as he could, he was sad and depressed even to tears. Yet if I went away from Plymouth Church to any other, while he was all the time coming to our house, it would of course excite attention, cause suspicion and embarrass him very much, as well as my husband, who was then trying hard, under Beecher's constant urgency, to keep the awful secret from the public.

SHOULD NOT KNOW WHAT TO SAY

If I was asked the reason for it and it might be the means of doing great injury to those whom I wanted to shield and help. Beecher, too, had more than any other represented to me the Christian religion, and to bring reproach upon him seemed an injury to it; so I abstained from going elsewhere, lest it should harm him and indirectly bring things to light which he was all the while afraid should become known, and which did not belong to me to disclose. Beecher surely ought to be the last man in the world to blame me for what I did in his behalf. He knows that I could not speak the truth more perfectly than I have spoken it here, if I was standing this moment.

BEFORE GOD'S THRONE OF JUDGMENT.

When Mr. Tilton's name was dropped by you two years ago, I told Mr. Beecher that I was afraid you would sometimes want to open mine in the same way. He then most earnestly assured me that it should never be done; that he would see to it himself that I should never in any way be injured by his church. I do not know how Mr. Beecher—knowing as well as he does the perfect truth of what I say, knowing how he used to weep at our house and heap shame upon himself for his great sin, how often he spoke to my husband and myself of the utter despair in which he would be except for our comfort and help—I cannot see how it was possible for him to stand up and read this letter to me in your presence, without his very soul giving way."

Mrs. Moulton refers to the other parts of the letter, saying there are a great many things in it which are incorrect and injurious, some of which she mentions as follows:

You say that so far as the church on the Committee knew, I had never made any statement impugning the purity of Beecher except in a court of justice; but in that very court

I STATED UNDER OATH

That I made precisely the same charge which I have since made in my protest, and long ago, to one of the leading members and officers of your church, telling him that Beecher's sin was adultery, and that he and Mrs. Tilton both confessed it to me. If the statement was slander, I might months ago have been called to account for it. I never knew before that false swearing in a court of justice is an offense which the Church of Christ is unable to punish; and you do me injustice if you think I lied in a public manner in that solemn hour, that I lied in order to injure a minister whom I had loved as much as any of you do, and whom I had done my best to uphold and comfort for three dismal years, through the time of an anguish which he was carefully hiding from you.

Yours, —EMMA C. MOULTON.

THE President, having granted the request of General O. E. Babcock for a court of inquiry into the charges recently made against him in St. Louis, has designated Lieutenant General P. H. Sheridan, Major General W. S. Hancock and Brigadier General H. Terry to comprise said court, and they will be ordered to meet in Chicago on Thursday, December 9th. Major Asa Bird Gardner, professor of law at West Point Military Academy, has been selected as Judge Advocate. The order detailing the court provides for a report of the facts as found and a written opinion in the case.

It is said to be definitely settled that Colorado will be admitted into the Union on the Fourth of July, 1876. The Centennial State will have three electoral votes in the next Presidential election.

THE Elko Post hope that a fitter man than Stevenson will have charge of Nevada's affairs at the Centennial.

A BEAUTIFUL EXTRACT.

"Generation after generation," says a fine writer, "have felt as we feel now, and their lives were as active as our own. They passed away like a vapor, while nature wore the same aspect of beauty as when her Creator commanded her to be. The heavens shall be as bright over our graves as they are now around our paths. The world will have the same attractions for our offspring yet unborn that she conceived for ourselves, and that she now has for our children. Yet a little while and all will have happened. The throbbing heart will be still, and we shall be at rest. Our funeral will wend its way, and the prayers will be said, and our friends will all return, and we shall be left behind in silence and darkness for the worm. And it may be for a short time we shall be spoken of, but the things of life will creep in, and our names will be forgotten. Days will continue to move on, and laughter and song will be heard in the room where we died; and the eye that mourned for us will be dried and glistens for joy; and even our children will cease to think of us, and will not remember to kiss our names. Then shall we have become, in the touching language of the Psalmist "forgotten and gone out of mind."

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE THIS DAY associated themselves in the practice of Medicine and Surgery. Our joint services will be rendered without extra charge in all cases when deemed necessary.
